

Hilltown Trivia Contest: And the Grand Prize Winner is.....

Elaine Holder, of Plainfield, certainly knows her local history and trivia! Of the 58 local history enthusiasts who gave The Creamery's recent contest a try, Elaine was the only one with all the answers. She attributes her success to living in the area for 30 years, and one visit to Google for a particularly pesky question. A quick visit to Goshen's town website revealed the town nickname as G-town. Only 4 other entrants got that one! See all the correct answers HERE Elaine's decisive win notwithstanding, she did have some solid competition. Cai Walkowiak earned a second place, with only one missed question, and 3 other folks had a third place showing with only two missed questions.

As our Grand Prize Winner Elaine gets a coupon for 15% off a shopping trip at The Old Creamery Co-op. Cai receives a 10% coupon, and the third place winners each receive a 5% off shopping coupon.
