

Summer Music & BBQ at the Old Creamery Co-op

Friday Night 5:30		Saturday 11:30
Aug 19th	Rachel Laitman Yes, that Rachel Laitman, Singer-Songwriter and part time, cheery Creamery deli person. (Music does not pay the bills, yet)  “When an artist is selected, overproduced, air-brushed, homogenized, neutered, and packaged by children in marketing departments of corporations for the masses – as it is in dynasty America, dreaming of Super Bowls – real talent, pure talent like that of Rachel Laitman goes largely unappreciated.” Rachel Laitman pours her heart into beautiful songs which quietly soothe peoples’ souls if they would only listen. Deb Talan comes to mind, or Laura Marling; those few singer-songwriters that through undeniable talent climb over the competitive frenzy into the public sphere. Ms. Laitman is of that caliber, and I entreat you to listen.” Gordon Massman – American Poet	Aug 20th	Jazz Insight  Vocalist Laura Pierce & saxophonist Michael Kolodny have been professional jazz artists since the 1980s. Laura and Michael have performed at many noted venues, including the Blue Note and Carnegie Hall in New York City, Ryles and Scullers in Boston, and the Discover Jazz Festival. Their recording "I Love Jazz" is a workshop on listening to jazz. See their website www.jazzinsight.com for additional information or to purchase a CD.
